Hiking Humboldt: 10 Extraordinary But Little Known Walks in Humboldt County

Thursday, October 12, 6:30 - 8:00 pm
HSU Library Fishbowl (2nd Floor of the HSU Library)

Ready to find your new favorite place to go for a walk?

Hear tales from the trail as Rees talks about walking in Humboldt County and shares images to inspire (and inform!) your next hike. All walks featured appear in the book Hiking Humboldt Volume 2: 101 Shorter Day Hikes, Urban and Road Walks.

These include walking the 0.4 mile long Loleta Tunnel, exploring Lacks Creek and Schoolhouse Peak/Lyons Ranch, walking the Ft. Seward Road or the Dyerville Loop Road, finding fossils on the Centerville Beach to Fleener Creek Loop, and more.

This is a free event. Please be in touch with questions: hughes@humboldt.edu
